

AMPHIBIAN YOUNG ACTORS WORKSHOP

JUNE 25 TO 29, 2007

MONDAY-FRIDAY 10:00-3:00

What: The Amphibian Young Actors Workshop is a One Week Intensive Studio Class in which students will receive rigorous acting training geared towards today's professional theater. In a fun and active atmosphere, students will explore the principle elements of the theater, and use these tools to develop an open and creative acting instrument. This training is highly applicable to today's professional theater, film and television industries. The workshop will focus on:

Chekov-Based Movement Work
Voice Development
Improvisation
Audition Discussion

Who: This workshop is designed for High School and Middle School level students who have had at least one theater class or some theater experience. All teachers are company members of Amphibian Productions and professional actors currently working in New York and regional theater. Please call for current assignments. 817-923-3012

When/Where: Classes are held June 25 to 29 on the Texas Christian University Campus in Fort Worth. They begin at 10:00 am and go until 3:00 pm, with a lunch break at noon.

Parents are invited to attend a public presentation of the work at the end of the week.

Course Fee: $250; $225 for Amphibian Members

Requires $30 non-refundable deposit

(*) Prorated refund for withdrawals during the first 2 classes. No refund after 3rd class.

It is the responsibility of the parent or guardian to arrange for student transportation. Please bring students on time and arrive for pickup promptly as the theater spaces are being used for rehearsals.
